

Hazel Atlas Picnic - June 1926
Bookkeeping and Credit Department
Riverboat - Liberty
Courtesy of Patricia Hagedorn Baney

Now about the picture - left to right.

Sitting -
 Hagedorn, Madelyn, Marlin, Lorraine, Blum, Harry,
 Gordon (Aunt), Tom, Helmer (later that month, she married Paul Kueckmann), Lucille, Herman, Almer, S. H. Anski

Standing
 Joe Dealey, Helen H. Frank (later Helen), Marie
 Krasuth, Herb Dressak, Virginia, Wister, Allan, Bettye, the boy whose name I don't remember (he worked there only a short while, and didn't stay much longer), Paul Schuler, Clarence Chambers.

You can see the figure of the pilot (usually the captain) in the wheel-house.

(We went to Cresap's Store, "Moonlight & Roses" and a song or popular one, but seemingly forgotten in a short time - a waltz "Lonely Lullaby")

Transcription of Document

Sitting: Henrietta Hagedorn, Madelyn Martin, Lorraine Blum, Harry Gordon (boss), Hon Folmar (later that month she married Bill Dieckmann), Lucille German, Alma Sofanski

Standing: Joe Deuley, Helen Frank (later UNREADABLE), Marie Kossuth, Karl Frisch, Virginia Fisher, Allan Ketznel, the boy whose name I can't remember - (he'd worked there only a short while, and didn't stay much longer), Paul Schuler, Duane Chambers

You can see the figure of the pilot (usually the captain) in the wheelhouse.

We went to Cresap's Grove. "Moonlight and Roses" and a song so popular then, but seemingly forgotten in a short time - a walk "Lovely Luanne"

Names in italics are open to interpretation.