

The enclosed photo of the Wheeling Izaak Walton Club House, 1904, includes members' names on the reverse, although not all are in the photo.

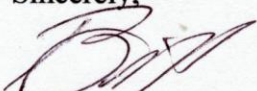

Although I don't identify her in the photo, my grandmother was Blanche Ferrel Ryan, on the list below Leech Key Cracraft (sp?), both from Elm Grove. They probably were cousins. Blanche's mother was Mary Martha Cracraft. They lived with Blanche's uncle Will Cracraft for awhile. All were descended from George Atkinson Cracraft and Jane Knox.

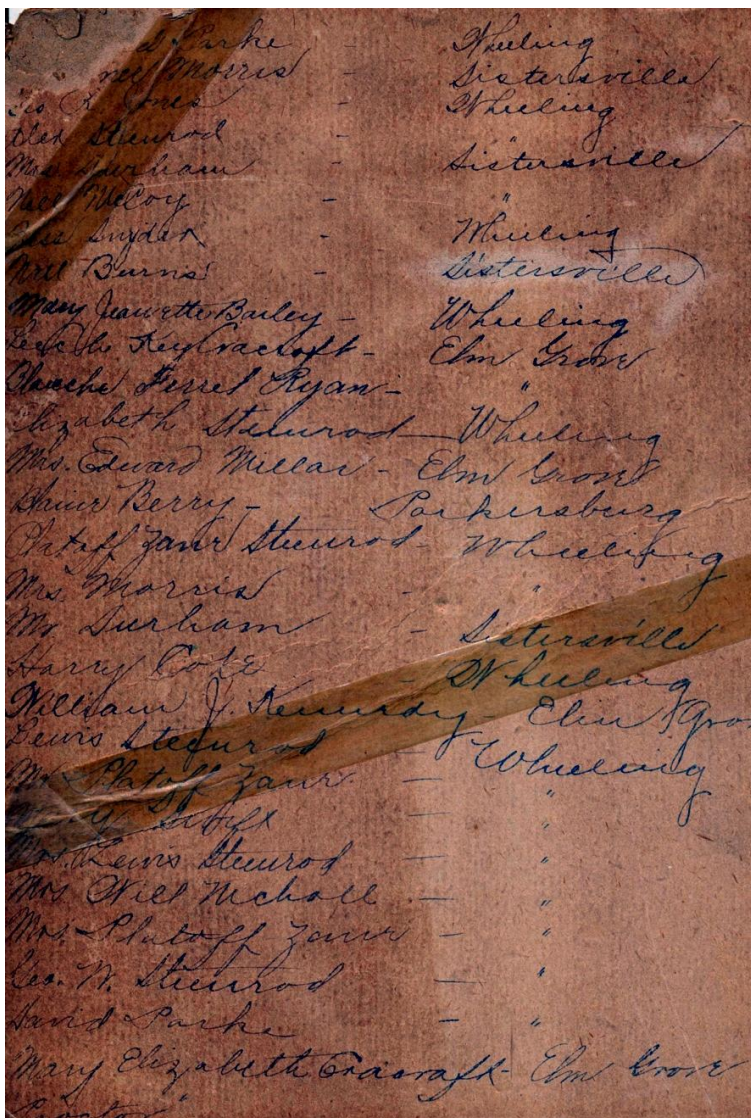

The Izaak Walton Club is curious because the national Izaak Walton League did not form until about 1922. It's still active and has a Web site.

Please forward this to WAGS after scanning.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

William Ryan
