

T. G. NASH POST

Grand Army of the Republic

This is a group picture of the T. G. Nash Post, G.A.R., assembled behind the Ruckman Church in Shultz, WV, about 1900. Samuel Wells is the man in the center with his hands on his knees sitting on a chair. The 4th man from the left is George Templeton Atkinson.

This photo of Samuel Wells was contributed by his great-great granddaughter, Abbey Wells Blevins. Samuel Wells appears in the 1890 census for Jefferson District, Pleasants County, WV.

George Templeton Atkinson and his wife, Sarah Agnes Britton, were formerly from Washington County, Ohio. George served in Company "F" 36th Ohio Infantry during the Civil War. They moved to Ritchie County to be near their daughter, Nettie Florence Atkinson, the wife of William Grant Cunningham. George died at Coombs, Ritchie County in 1924, and is buried at Harmony Grove Cemetery. He was the great-great grandfather of Linda Cunningham Fluharty. More about him here: <http://www.lindapages.com/george.htm>